

A MESSAGE OF HOPE, comfort and freedom in Jesus Christ

“The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion — to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.” Isaiah 61:1-3

Our vision:

To bring others to Jesus Christ

Our mission:

To bring a message of hope, comfort and freedom in Jesus Christ to those who are incarcerated.

Our goal:

To meet the spiritual needs of our friends inside as well as help them to break the cycle of addiction. Through helping them change their thoughts and behaviors (and, ultimately, their hearts) their lives can be redirected and they can return to the community as productive citizens, parents and family members. Redeeming, reconciling and restoring lives is God’s purpose and ours. By encouraging change from within the individual, we can reduce recidivism and stop the cycle of crime.

“Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow prisoners; and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.” Hebrews 13:3
